RE: Dodora v. Directi

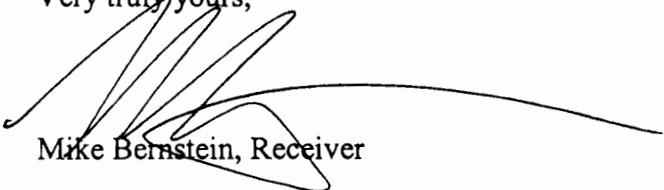

Dear Mr. Hecker:

Attached and enclosed, via fax, is Mr. Baker's response to my letter. Unless you can obtain Dodora's waiver of the nondisclosure terms, I am unable to appear or provide documents.

I object to the subpoenas on the basis that I have signed a settlement agreement which contains nondisclosure terms as to the settlement agreement and as to the lawsuit.

Therefore, I will not be appearing for the deposition.

Very truly yours,

Mike Bernstein, Receiver

Re: Dodora v. Directi et al

Dear Mr. Bernstein:

I received your faxed letter dated yesterday. I have given some thought to the question of whether there would be any basis for my client to claim any privilege as to the information sought by Directi in its subpoena.

Because you did not represent Dodora – indeed, your actions were (in Dodora's opinion) contrary to its best interests and were wholly unauthorized by Dodora – I cannot think of any basis for seeking to quash the subpoena, at least at this time.

Obviously I cannot give you legal advice. I can say, however, that our failure to file a motion to quash in no way absolves you of anything. Any past, present or future action you took as regards Dodora is open to review and, if appropriate, may be the subject of claims against you. You should govern yourself accordingly.
